Notes:

- Every sentence in English must have at least one verb and one subject.
- The verb in a sentence is always related to the subject.
- Subject = a noun or pronoun that performs the action of the sentence
  - Examples: Sam threw the ball to Tommy.
  - Riding a bike is difficult for a small child.
- Verbs express: action (eat, stop, make); states of being (am, seem, appear); or mental states (know, think feel).
- Preposition = a word or set of words that indicates location (in, near, beside, on top of) or some other relationship between a noun or pronoun and other parts of the sentence (about, after, besides, instead of, in accordance with).
- A prepositional phrase will begin with a preposition and end with a noun, pronoun, gerund, or clause, the "object" of the preposition.
  - Example: She threw the can (in the recycling bin).

Incomplete v Complete Sentences

A complete sentence has three components:

1. a subject (the actor in the sentence)
2. a verb (the mental state, state of being, or action), and
3. a complete thought (it can stand alone and make sense—it's independent).
